Professional Experience

BlueRock, February 2026 – Present

Senior Technical Writer — Bangalore, India

- Drive the complete documentation lifecycle from the initial requirements stage, including feature discovery and engineering alignment discussions, through to continuous integration and final delivery/publishing.
- Architect and implement the developer portal's global Left Navigation and structural layout to optimize content discovery and user self-onboarding.
- Establish and enforce the company's official documentation Style Guide while defining and unifying quality standards for both internal engineering wikis and external-facing developer documentation.
- Function as the standalone technical writer to build the documentation ecosystem from the ground up, authoring comprehensive API reference guides, SDK documentation, and clear integration tutorials.

Ivanti, October 2023 – February 2026

Senior Technical Writer — Bangalore, India

- Documented enterprise ITSM and AI-driven features, covering REST APIs, intelligent ticket summarization, and knowledge base automation for global developer and administrator audiences.
- Established secure, GitHub-based version-controlled workflows across 30+ major software releases annually, significantly boosting content accuracy, discoverability, and release velocity.
- Accelerated structured content creation by integrating generative AI and Copilot workflows, enhancing readability metrics while reducing engineering review cycles.

BrowserStack, August 2022 – September 2023

Lead Technical Writer — Bangalore, India

- Owned, managed, and scaled the public API and automation platform documentation suite (docs.browserstack.com), successfully serving an active audience of over 500,000 developers monthly.
- Designed and deployed a developer-first content architecture that streamlined technical onboarding and directly contributed to a 25% reduction in customer support tickets.
- Mentored a team of 4 technical writers on advanced Git workflows and agile execution, while spearheading the creation of comprehensive style guides to ensure organizational content consistency.

Red Hat, September 2020 – July 2022

Technical Writer II — Bangalore, India

- Authored robust API and CLI infrastructure documentation for OpenShift on docs.openshift.com, ensuring flawless style compliance and technical consistency across complex ecosystem releases.
- Collaborated closely with enterprise core engineers and global open-source community contributors, reviewing and merging over 50 deep-tech Pull Requests (PRs) monthly.
- Enhanced external developer success rates by simplifying and clarifying distributed systems workflows while strictly adhering to IBM corporate style guide standards.

Samsung R&D (via Tech Mahindra), August 2018 – September 2020

Technical Writer — Bangalore, India

- Created highly technical SDK documentation for the Tizen TV application ecosystem, accelerating developer onboarding and global application adoption.
- Partnered with global Product Managers and core engineering squads to localize, refine, and streamline technical adoption guides for global usability.
- Seamlessly integrated enterprise documentation with GitHub workflows to establish agile, collaborative, code-adjacent authoring environments.

Ittiam Systems, January 2017 – August 2018

Technical Writer — Bangalore, India

- Documented multi-platform multimedia SDKs, advanced APIs, and core internal developer toolchains for embedded software platforms.
- Automated production documentation builds utilizing custom Python scripting and Git version control, maintaining build consistency across rolling product releases.
- Contributed authoring support to critical technical artifacts, including architectural design documents, hardware porting guides, and system topology diagrams.
